

Live Life Uninterrupted... StaySure™ Today

If you're living with fecal incontinence or accidental bowel leakage (ABL), you know how hard it can be to feel in control. It affects not only your body but your confidence, your social life, and your sense of freedom.

You are not alone—and you no longer have to live with uncertainty.
There is a solution. A real one. And it's available now.

Introducing StaySure. Immediate relief. All-day confidence.

StaySure™ is a revolutionary, non-surgical rectal insert that stops leakage before it happens. It's discreet, comfortable, and designed to help you live your life without interruption—from your morning coffee to dinner with friends.

Whether you're headed to work or simply enjoying time at home, StaySure™ allows you to move through life with confidence.

How It Works

Patented. Soft. Conforming. Reliable.

Unlike pads or diapers, StaySure™ doesn't just manage leakage—it prevents it.

Its patented liquid-filled design is made from silicone that gently conforms to your anatomy to form a complete internal seal.

- Soft, flexible, and liquid-filled for personalized comfort
- Prevents leakage and associated odors
- Comfortable for daily wear
- Easy to insert and remove on your own

Clinically Proven<sup>[1]</sup>. Developed by Experts.

StaySure™ isn't just innovative—it's proven. Developed in collaboration with world-leading gastroenterologists, it has undergone rigorous clinical studies demonstrating both its safety and effectiveness.

Live Each Day Confidently

Whether it's going out for a walk, attending a family gathering, or getting a restful night's sleep, StaySure™ lets you live freely—without fear of accidents.

Rejoin life. Reconnect with loved ones. Rediscover your confidence.

Incontinence supplies don't have to be complicated. With StaySure™, you can enjoy the freedom to make spontaneous trips, embrace impromptu plans—or simply relax with confidence.
